Double Patenting

1. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

2. Claims 31, 32, 33, 34, 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1, 2, 3, 4, 7 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,888,998. This is a double patenting rejection.

Claims 31, 32, 33, 34, and 36 against claims 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, after a careful analysis the examiner cannot declare a significant different enough to declare by identifying a scope different between the claims to be an obvious variant.

Applicant is requested to either point out with respect to differences in claim language in claim 31, or to amend to a limitation not existing to render an obvious variant to allow a terminal disclaimer to be effective.

Wherein claim 8 is 6,888,998, also an apparatus claim further claims a housing, not claimed in claims 1-, therefore is an obvious variant, the examiner suggests amending to a limitation not recited in patented claims 1-9.

The primary examiner offers assistance to discuss this issue.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claim 35 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,888,998. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because.

Claim 35 recited all as recited in claim 5, but, claim 5 also has recited in it the limitations of 3 & 4, in view of the dependency, therefore the limitations as recited in claims 3-4, are not met by claim 5, but, the limitations of claims 3-4, buffering input and output with respect to remaining capacities and buffering and stopping reproduction upon a predetermined amount, the examiner takes official notice are well known and obvious to recite in claim 35, as is obvious to those skilled in the art.

Allowance of claim 35 of the instant application would result in a time-wise extension of the monopoly previously granted for the invention defined by patent claim 5, therefore, obviousness type double patenting is deemed proper.
